

Heritage Lottery Fund - supported training bursaries programme 2006 - 2010: year 2

Conservation internships 2007 - Educational stipend of £14,500 p.a.

Conserving our heritage can be a stimulating and rewarding career. Icon is offering a 12 further work-based internships of 12 and 24 months' duration as part of its successful HLF funded conservation training bursaries scheme for September 2007. The scheme aims to broaden access to careers in conservation and to increase the UK's fund of conservation skills. Some placements (*) are open to new entrants to conservation from arts, crafts, science or heritage backgrounds. Others are for those who have recently graduated from a conservation course.

12 MONTHS:

Birmingham – Collections Care (Ref 07/1*)
Devon – Conservation of Carpets (Ref 07/2*)
Edinburgh – Conservation of Stone and Sculpture (Ref 07/3*)
Belfast - Conservation of Archives (Ref 07/4*)
Tate, London – Conservation of Frames (Ref 07/5*)
National Trust, Bristol – Housekeeping and Preventive Conservation (Ref 07/6)
Preston – Conservation of Archives (Ref 07/7*)
Lincolnshire – Architectural Conservation (Ref 07/8)
V&A, London – Conservation of Ceramics (Ref 07/9)
London – Conservation Science (Ref 07/10*)

24 MONTHS:

Wells – Conservation of Stained Glass (Ref 07/11*)
Durham – Conservation of Books (Ref 07/12*)

Information on all placements and details of eligibility can be found on the Icon website at www.icon.org.uk Interviews for short-listed applicants will be held in July. All internships will start in mid-September 2007. Apply using the form available from the Icon website www.icon.org.uk

Forms may also be obtained by e-mailing training@icon.org.uk or by telephoning 0131 240 5038/2. We request that – wherever possible – you use electronic format for enquiries and applications. See <http://www.hlf.org.uk/HLFBursaries> for details of other schemes.

The Training Development Manager, Icon, 22–26 George St Edinburgh EH2 2PQ

Closing date for applications: 8 JUNE 2007